

MY FUNERAL DECREE - DIY Version

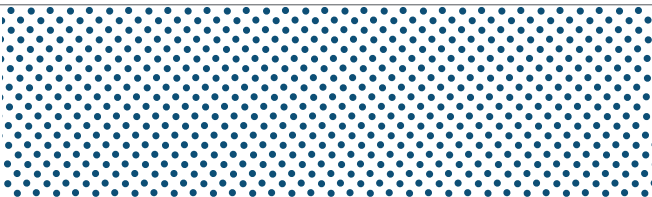

This card has been created by the Re.designing Death movement to encourage that all important conversation about end of life wishes.

Talk to your loved one/s about how you'd like to be remembered and what you want for your funeral. Make it 'official' and assign them as your executor. We need to talk about it if we want to re.design death.

How to do it?

- Print this page twice (it is always better when you do it with someone)
- Cut following the cutting line
- Fold twice following the folding lines
- Fill it, talk about it, share it
